3. Basis & Purposes for Processing, Collecting & Storing your Personal Information.

- 3.1. The data protection laws allow us to use your personal data only if we have a lawful basis to do so.
- 3.2. When we process, collect or store your Personal Information, we do so on the following basis:
 - 3.2.1. where it is necessary to process your Personal Information in connection with the performance of our services or a contract that we have with you;
 - 3.2.2. where we are required to use your Personal Information to comply with our legal obligations, a request from a regulator or court of law or as otherwise permitted by law;
 - 3.2.3. to pursue our legitimate interest, provided that we only use your Personal Information to pursue our legitimate interests where your interests and fundamental rights or freedoms do not override those interests; and
 - 3.2.4. for any other purpose that you have agreed with us where you have given your explicit consent for specific forms of processing of your Personal Information, which consent you may decline or revoke at any time.
- 3.3. We will only use your Personal Information for the purposes for which we collected it, and as stated in this Policy, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your Personal Information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.
- 3.4. We will use your personal data only to perform our services and to fulfil our legitimate interests or those of other parties when these interests are not overridden by your rights. We may be obliged by law to collect and use some of your data, for example to transfer your API details to border control authorities.

3.5. We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- 3.5.1. to manage your travel bookings and provide our services to you.
- 3.5.2. for operational communications related to the booking arrangements; whereby we may need to contact you via mail, email, telephone or other forms of electronic messaging for administrative or operational reasons related to your travel/flight arrangements. Please be aware that these communications are not made for marketing purposes and as such, you will continue to receive them even if you choose to not receive marketing communications.
- 3.5.3. to handle any queries; in order to fulfil your requests, administer and resolve queries you may have as a result of contacting us with a written request or enquiry, or interacting with us on social media, or contacting us via telephone. Please note that your calls may be recorded for training and quality control purposes.
- 3.5.4. to handle any refund or compensation claims; in order to fulfil your requests, administer and resolve claims you may have as a result of contacting us with a written claim or interacting with us on social media, or contacting us via telephone. Please note that your calls may be recorded for training and quality control purposes.
- 3.5.5. to process your feedback; as a result of any query (as stated above) or in circumstances where we may send you an email requesting feedback which will provide us with information on how to improve our services and manage our relationship with you.
- 3.5.6. to personalise and improve your customer experience and provide personalised customer experience where relevant; where Personal Information may be used to review flight history, access to products and services, use of website, and offers.
- 3.5.7. to inform you about our Company news and offers; whereby only if you have indicated that you agree to receive these, we may send you marketing communications via email on our services and products or those of our partners products and services that may relate to your travel arrangements. We may also use other ways to let you know about news and offers, for example through social media or when you take your fastjet flight or you contact us.
 - if you no longer want to hear from us about our or our partners' products and services, you can simply tell us so by Contacting our Customer Services or Marketing team and expressing your preference not to receive marketing communications, or by opting out of receiving marketing communication by clicking on the relevant unsubscribe link at the bottom of the marketing related communications you may receive from us, or choosing the relevant option before confirming your booking.
- 3.5.8. to improve our services, fulfil our administrative purposes and protect our business interests; whereby we may use your Personal Information to fulfil our legitimate business interests. These interests include improving our services and offering you better customer experience, using information for accounting, billing and audit purposes, credit or other payment card verification, fraud screening, safety, security and legal purposes, statistical and marketing analysis, systems testing and maintenance. We will use personal information for the above business purposes only where we consider it necessary and we will try where possible to use information that does not allow the identification of our customers, for example we will mainly use aggregate data for analysis purposes. When we need to use information that can potentially allow the identification of our customers, we will use as little information as possible and we will do that in a way so as to respect your rights and freedoms.

- 8.1. If you believe that we hold incorrect or incomplete information about you, please let us know and we will correct it. You will need to email data.protection@fastjet.com.
- 8.2. Please note that any requests for changes in your active bookings, for example changes of passenger names or of travel details may also be bound by the Terms & Conditions of Carriage and the applicable fare rules.

9. Retention & Deletion of Personal Information

- 9.1. We will retain your Personal Information only for the period required to fulfil the purposes set out in this Policy and when there is a legal obligation to do so. We will not retain your Personal Information longer than the period for which it was originally required, unless we are required by law to do so, or you consent to us retaining such information for a longer period.
- 9.2. Where your information is no longer required, we will ensure it is disposed of in a secure manner and, where required by applicable law, we will notify you when such information has been disposed of.
- 9.3. Our data retention, storage and disposal policy set out the applicable minimum retention periods required by local laws. We use this policy to establish the retention time periods for various categories of records that contain your personal information. For further information on our data retention, storage and disposal policy contact us at data.protection@fastjet.com.

10. Objection

- 10.1. You have the right to object to the use of your data for direct marketing purposes at any time. This policy provides details on how you have options to unsubscribe from receiving marketing communications.
- 10.2. Also, you may consider that you have reasons to object to the use of your data when such use is based on our legitimate interests as explained in this Policy. Before using your data for our business interests we have balanced these interests against your rights and freedoms; however, if you consider that you have grounds to object to the use of your data, you can explain to us your particular situation and we will individually review your request.

11. Withdrawing consent

- 11.1. When we rely on your consent to process your personal data (for example when you save details in your account for future use), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. We will respect your choice and stop further processing your data; however, any use of your data before you withdraw consent will not be affected.

12. Data related concerns

- 12.1. If you have any concerns in relation to how we use your personal data, please let us know. we will reply to your queries and if necessary, take steps to ensure our practices are consistent with our obligations. If you are still not satisfied with the way we use your personal data and you believe this is not in accordance with data protection laws, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection authority.

13. Protecting Your Personal Information

- 13.1. We are committed to protecting the personal data and Personal Information we hold by taking appropriate technical and organisational measures against unauthorised, unlawful or accidental access, loss, destruction or damage of such personal data. We are constantly taking steps to improve in the field of Information Security as the sector itself is constantly changing as well.
- 13.2. All Personal Information is treated as strictly confidential. We take appropriate legal, technical and organisational measures to ensure that your Personal Information is kept secure and is protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, alteration, disclosure or access.
- 13.3. Where legally required, we shall promptly notify you if we become aware of any unauthorised use, disclosure or processing of your Personal Information.
- 13.4. We are committed to provide you with reasonable evidence of our compliance with our obligations under this Privacy Policy on reasonable notice and request; and
- 13.5. Upon your request we shall promptly return or destroy any and all of your Personal Information in our possession or control.
- 13.6. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach or unauthorised disclosure where we are legally required to do so.
- 13.7. We will do our best to protect your Personal Information, and we will use technology that will help us to do this. When you provide your personal data through our website, this information is transmitted across the internet securely using industry standard encryption. However, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure and we cannot guarantee the security of your information transmitted to our website. Any transmission of your information on the website is entirely at your own risk.
- 13.8. fastjet and/or appointed third party payment processing providers may be required to process credit / debit card information in accordance with PCI. This means that we adhere to high security standards in order to protect your payment card details when you are sending us this information.
- 13.9. The information that you provide to us will be held in our systems or systems stored by service providers/third parties for the purposes prescribed in this policy. As described in this Privacy Policy, we may in some instances disclose or allow access to your information by third parties who act for us for the purposes described in this policy or for other purposes approved by you. Where these third parties process your personal data on our behalf, we require that they have appropriate technical and organisational measures in place to protect this data.

- 13.10. We will ensure that all employees and/or third-party service providers having access to your Personal Information are bound by appropriate and legally binding confidentiality and non-use obligations in relation to your Personal Information.

14. International Transfer of Personal Information

- 14.1. We may, from time to time, transfer, store or host, your Personal Information on servers outside of South Africa. This may include access to your Personal Information by staff operating outside of South Africa who work for us or for our suppliers or agents (this includes staff engaged in, among other things, the fulfilment of your booking, for example our ground handling agents who assist you at the airport, and the provision of support services).
- 14.2. Should your Personal Information be transferred outside South Africa, we shall ensure that at least the same level of data protection will be applied in the other country where the data is being processed and/or that we and/or the service provider acts at all times in compliance with applicable data protection and privacy laws.
- 14.3. We also provide links to third party websites through our website. These are subject to separate Privacy Policies and are not controlled by fastjet. Please be aware that this Privacy Policy does not apply to such websites and fastjet is not responsible for your information that third parties may collect through these websites.
- 14.4. Also, in some instances we may be compelled by law to disclose our customers' personal data to a third party, such as airports and border control agencies, and we have limited control over how data is protected by that party.

15. Use of Cookies

- 15.1. In order to improve our services, to provide you with more relevant content and to analyse how visitors use our website and app, we may use technologies, such as cookies, pixels or tracking software. Please be aware that in most cases we will not be able to identify you from the information we collect using these technologies.
- 15.2. For more information on how we use cookies and how you can remove them, read our Cookie Policy.

16. Updates to our Privacy Policy

- 16.1. We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time, to ensure that the information we provide to you is up to date and in accordance with the relevant data protection laws. Any new version of this Policy will be published on our website.

17. Contact information

- 17.1. Questions, comments and feedback regarding this Privacy Policy, are welcomed and should be addressed to our Data Protection Officer at data.protection@fastjet.com
